(A&B) Zhaojun Village

Tour Intensity: ★★★★★

Tour Method: Shore Shuttle Bus + Walking

① Viewing Platform of the Water-over Highway

The Guzha Highway is China's first eco - friendly road. To avoid deforestation and environmental damage, the local government invested 440 million yuan in this 10.9 - km highway. 4.4 km of it, composed of two large bridges, lies between canyons. With charming scenery on both sides, it seems to float on water, thus named the "Water - over Highway". Now, it's a unique tourist attraction in western Hubei. We'll stop here on the way to Zhaojun Village for you to take pictures and enjoy the view.

② Shore Excursions - Zhaojun Village

This place was originally named Baoping Village. It was renamed Zhaojun Village because Wang Zhaojun, one of the Four Great Beauties in Chinese history, was born here. Wang Zhaojun was renowned for her peerless beauty, described as "making the moon hide, flowers blush, fish sink and geese fall". In the interest of diplomatic relations, she married the monarch(Chanyu) of the Xiongnu beyond the Great Wall and brought the culture of the Central Plains to the Xiongnu people.

The current Zhaojun Village is a national AAAA-level scenic spot (This rating is officially determined by the Chinese government.). Here, visitors can experience the culture of court ladies in the Han Dynasty of China and admire the beautiful scenery.

(A) Tiansheng Bridge

Tour Intensity: ★★★★★

Tour Method: Shore shuttle bus + walking (The walking trail is 2.6 kilometers long with more than 1,000 steps on the stairs. Please choose according to your own situation.)

The mountain here has been eroded by water flow over hundreds of millions of years, forming a shape that resembles a bridge cave. The mountain rocks here are stacked in layers, covered with wildflowers and green trees. The brook babbles gently, and the forest breeze blows refreshingly. The wooden plank road winds upwards in the cave. When you climb up and look out from the cave, the waterfalls flowing down from the rocks rush down rapidly, splashing like blooming flowers, resembling drums and bamboo shoots. Blending with the chirping of birds on both sides of the bank, it is just like a canyon sonata.

(B) Guanmenshan

Tour Intensity: ★★★

Tour Method: Shore shuttle bus + walking

Guanmenshan is traversed by two roads and a river. Along the route, there are typical evergreen broad-leaved forests in the north subtropical zone, characteristic geological sections of the Shennongjia Group, ancient stromatolites, etc. There are also nine rare plant conservation gardens, a biodiversity forest laboratory, a natural ecology museum, a giant panda hall, etc. Here, we can see many rare animals and plants such as giant salamanders, Chinese sturgeons, giant pandas, and Chinese honeybees.

The dawn in Wu Gorge

Viewing location: 6F - Viewing Deck

MIRACLE CRUISE sails through Wu Gorge in the morning glow. The carefully - selected time slot is designed to present you with the most beautiful scenery. Wu Gorge, one of the Three Gorges of the Yangtze River, extends 46 km from the Daning River east of Wushan County, Chongqing to Guandukou in Badong County, Hubei. Renowned for its elegance, it has a long, deep valley with towering peaks and layers of mountains. Mist shrouds the area, and the river twists and turns. Wushan Small Three Gorges + Luojiashai

Tour Intensity: ★

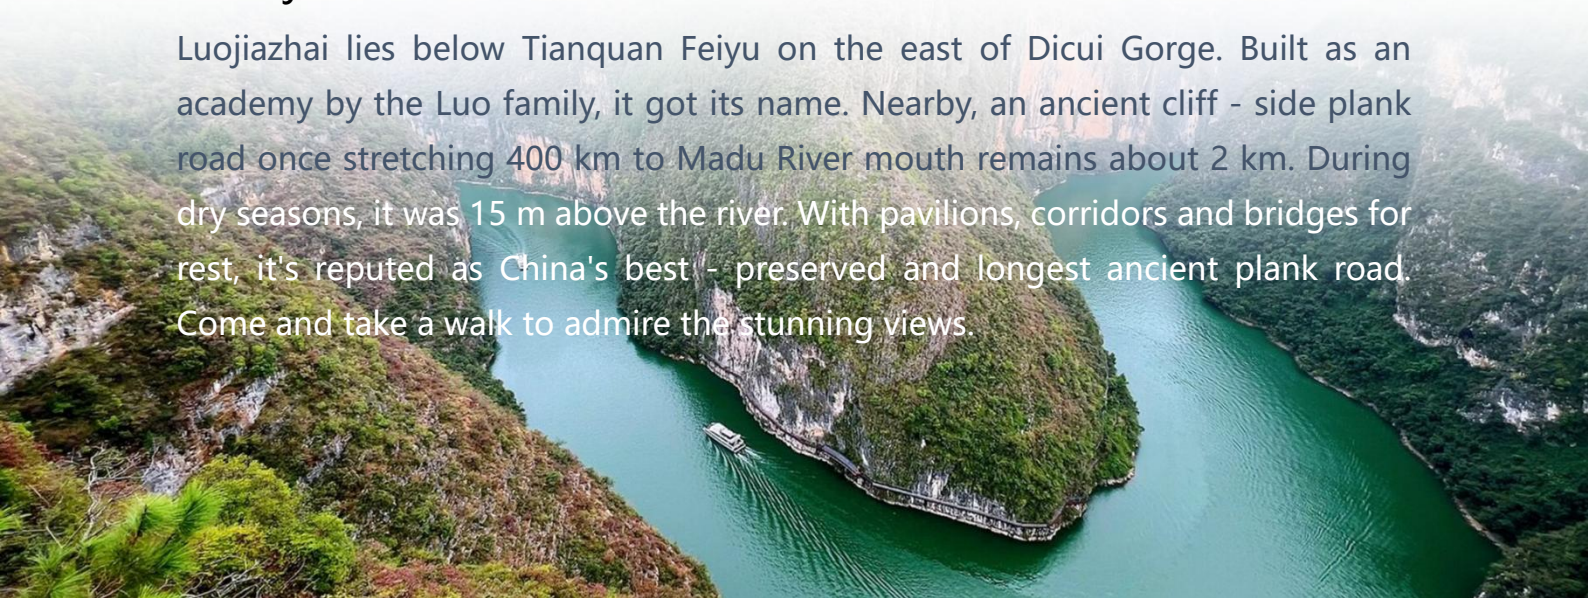

Tour Method: Transfer to a sightseeing cruise ship + light hiking (There are approximately 300 steps in Luojiashai. Please arrange according to your own physical condition.)

①Wushan Small Three Gorges

Chinese proverb says, "After returning from the Five Great Mountains, one no longer bothers to look at other mountains; after returning from the Ninghe River, one no longer bothers to look at other gorges." Wushan Small Three Gorges, a national AAAAA - level scenic spot (This rating is officially determined by the Chinese government.), is the general name for Longmen Gorge, Bawu Gorge, and Dicui Gorge on the lower reaches of the Daning River flowing through Wushan. It has a total length of 45 kilometers. As the boat sails through, the scenery on both banks is boundless. There are deep and strange peaks with steep cliffs, waterfalls cascading from mid - air, mysterious hanging coffins and ancient caves, ancient plank roads, cliff - side Buddha statues, and there is also a chance to encounter the spectacle of groups of monkeys climbing the cliffs, giving a strong sense of returning to nature.

②Luojiashai

Luojiashai lies below Tianquan Feiyu on the east of Dicui Gorge. Built as an academy by the Luo family, it got its name. Nearby, an ancient cliff - side plank road once stretching 400 km to Madu River mouth remains about 2 km. During dry seasons, it was 15 m above the river. With pavilions, corridors and bridges for rest, it's reputed as China's best - preserved and longest ancient plank road. Come and take a walk to admire the stunning views.

The afternoon in Qutang Gorge

Viewing location: 6F - Viewing Deck

MIRACLE CRUISE sails through Qutang Gorge and Kuimen in the afternoon. The carefully - selected time slot is designed to present you with the most beautiful scenery.

Qutang Gorge, one of the Three Gorges of the Yangtze River, also known as Kuixia, starts from Baidi City in Fengjie County, Chongqing in the west and ends at Daxi in Wushan in the east. It's renowned for its grandeur and precipitousness. On both banks, towering peaks soar into the clouds, and the sheer cliffs seem as if chiseled. At the western entrance of the gorge, the two facing precipitous cliffs, hundreds of feet high and less than a hundred meters wide, are shaped like a gateway, named Kuimen. An old Chinese saying, "Kuimen Tianxia Xiong", praises Kuimen for its unparalleled grandeur.

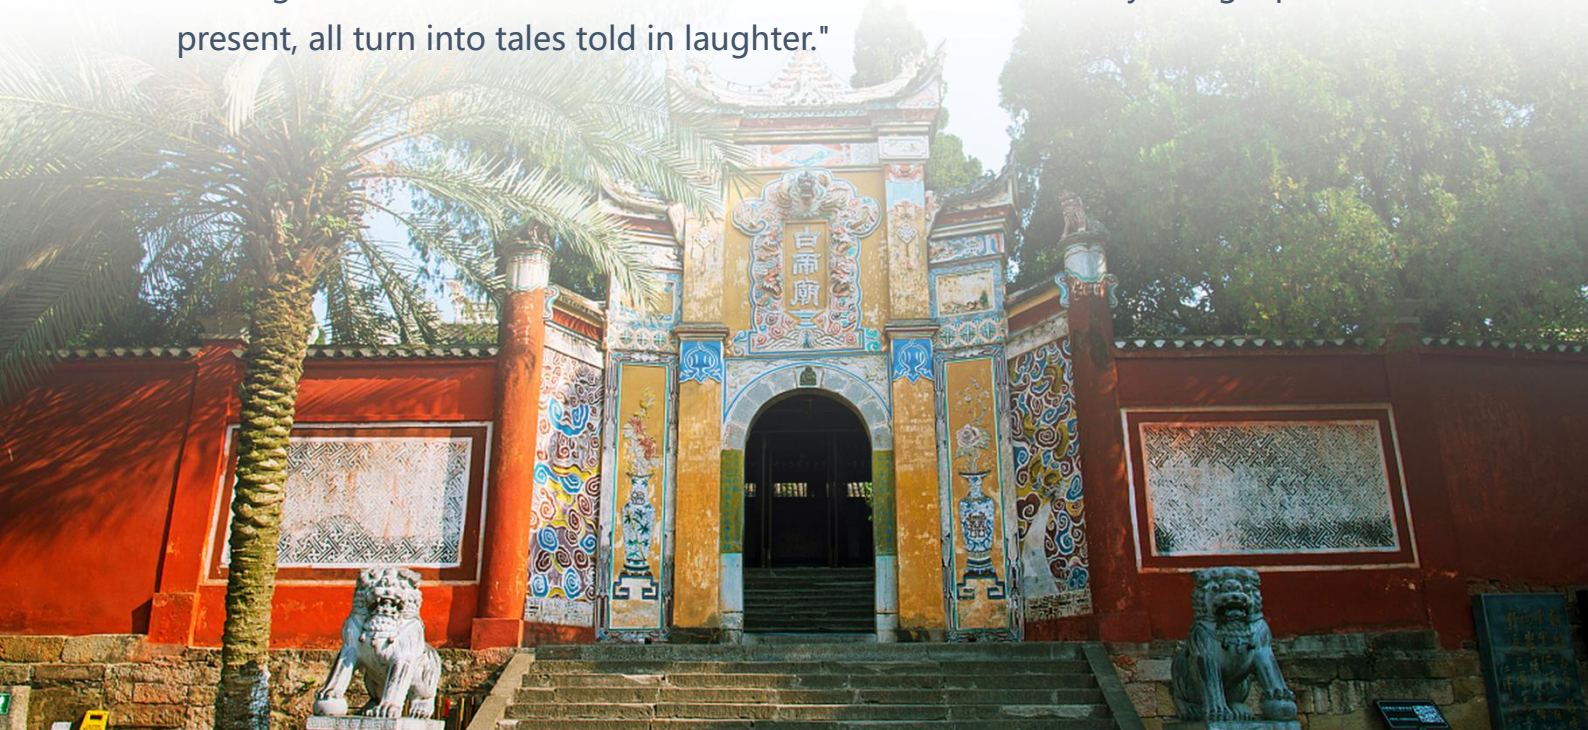

(A) Baidi City

Tour Intensity: ★★

Tour Method: Shore shuttle bus + Walking

Baidi City, a national AAAAA - level scenic spot, is rich in places of historic interest and natural beauty, integrating nature and humanity, poetry and the flames of war. It has witnessed the vicissitudes of history and carried legends such as Liu Bei entrusting his son and people upholding integrity. Moreover, there are immortal poems left by literati of past dynasties. Many great poets like Li Bai, Du Fu, Bai Juyi, Liu Yuxi, Su Shi, Huang Tingjian, and Lu You once climbed Baidi City and visited Kuimen, contributing to Fengjie's reputation as the "Poetry City".

Li Bai was pardoned during his exile. Combining the magnificent scenery with his joy, he wrote the popular poem "Leaving Baidi City at Dawn": "Leaving at dawn the White Emperor crowned with cloud, I've sailed a thousand li through canyons in a day. With monkeys' sad adieus the riverbanks are loud; My skiff has left ten thousand mountains far away." Wandering in Baidi City, every brick and stone has precipitated a thousand years of wind and frost. Leaning on the railing and looking into the distance, the river flows eastward. "So many things, past and present, all turn into tales told in laughter."

(B) The Three Gorges Summit

Tour Intensity: ★★★

Tour Method: Shore shuttle bus + Sightseeing car + Walking

The Three Gorges Summit, a national AAAA - level scenic spot, sits on Chijia Mountain above Kuimen. Stretching over 10 km, it's named after a poem by Du Fu, a renowned ancient Chinese poet.

The scenic area's highest point reaches 1,388 meters, the loftiest in the Three Gorges. From here, you can overlook rolling mountains and the meandering Yangtze. On the glass plank road, enjoy a panorama of Qutang Gorge, with Baidi City to the west and Wushan Mountain to the east. Experience the grandeur in Du Fu's lines: "The boundless forest sheds its leaves shower by shower; The endless river rolls its waves hour after hour." A breathtaking view of precipitousness, danger, surprise, and wonder unfolds.

For those who love natural scenery and wilderness hiking, this spot is the top pick.

DAY 4 Zhongxian

Zhongxian County is nestled against mountains and by waters, with the Yangtze River flowing through the city. Zhongxian is the only city in Chinese history named after the Chinese character "忠" (loyalty). The heroic deeds of Ba Manzi, who sacrificed his head to preserve the city, and the integrity of Yan Yan, who would rather be a decapitated general than a surrendering one, led to this place being named Zhongzhou.

(A) Shibaozhai

Tour Intensity: ★★★

Tour Method: Shore shuttle bus + Walking(There are approximately 300 steps. The steps have a relatively steep slope. You can walk along the water retaining dam to admire the exterior scenery.)

Shibaozhai, a national AAAA - level scenic spot(This rating is officially determined by the Chinese government.), was initially built around the 16th century, during the Wanli reign of the Ming Dynasty in China. With a history of over 400 years, it was expanded and repaired several times in the Qing Dynasty.

According to Chinese mythology, "Nüwa", the creator of the world, lost a piece of multicolored stone here while mending the sky. This multicolored stone has a peculiar shape today, resembling a jade seal, so this place is called "Shibao".

Shibaozhai integrates natural and cultural landscapes. The architectural complex consists of six parts: the access road to the stockade, the mountain gate, the stockade building, Kuixing Pavilion, Tianzi Hall, and the downhill plank road. The stockade building is a multi - storey chuandou - style wooden structure building that still exists in China. It showcases the superb architectural achievements of the ancient Chinese working people and is a shining pearl in the history of southern Chinese folk architecture. It enjoys a high reputation in the domestic and international tourism circles. Its existence is of great value for studying the history of ancient Chinese architecture, culture, and religion.

(B) Zhongzhou Alleys + Dongpo Garden

Tour Intensity: ★★★

Tour Method: Shore shuttle bus + Walking (There are approximately 100 steps.)

① Zhongzhou Alleys

"Retained City of the Three Gorges, Zhongzhou Alleys". Here, "retained" means preserved. Due to the construction of the Three Gorges Dam, the water level of the Yangtze River rose, and half of the old urban area of Zhongxian County was submerged in the river. And this alley is the other part that has been preserved. The Zhongzhou Alleys paved with bluestones wind and twist like the veins of time. It is the largest mountain residential street with Bayu characteristics in the Yangtze River Basin within Chongqing. Old buildings from the Ming and Qing dynasties are scattered among them, such as the Grand Mansion, Sun Family Ancestral Hall, Long Family Courtyard, and so on.

Here, you can enjoy a bowl of covered - bowl tea with unique characteristics of Sichuan and Chongqing, watch a performance, and experience the most authentic life of the local residents.

② Dongpo Garden

Bai Juyi, a renowned poet of China's Tang Dynasty, was transferred to serve as the 刺史 (governor) of Zhongzhou after being demoted. He was diligent in government affairs and loved the people. He even personally worked in the fields for farming. During his stay, he wrote the poem "Two Poems on Planting Flowers on the Eastern Slope". When we stroll in the garden, we can feel the artistic conception and sentiment depicted in Bai Juyi's lines, such as "The green osmanthus trees are like honored guests, and the red banana plants are like beautiful ladies" and "I hold money to buy flower trees and plant them on the eastern slope of the city."

DAY 5 Chongqing

Located at the confluence of the Yangtze and Jialing rivers, Chongqing is surrounded by mountains and water on three sides of its main urban area. The city is built along mountains and rivers, with tiered buildings. It is both a "Mountain City" and a "River City", truly a "City of Mountains and Waters".
